Rosanna Terracciano

Descripción

Rosanna Terracciano

Rosanna Terracciano is a flamenco dance artist based in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. She is a performer, choreographer, teacher and producer. As an independent dance artist, Rosanna has been funded by Calgary Arts Development, the Alberta Foundation for the Arts, and the Canada Council for the Arts.

Performing since an early age, Rosanna's more formal dance training began over ten years ago while she was pursuing a Civil Engineering degree at the University of Calgary. She began taking contemporary dance classes offered through the University of Calgary Department of Dance, and eventually went on to take community classes in flamenco dance, a cultural style that had always been present in her home due to her mother's love for flamenco culture.

After completing her Civil Engineering degree, Rosanna was accepted into the Contemporary Dance program at the University of Calgary, where she completed one year of studies. In January 2004, Rosanna chose to focus her energies on the flamenco movement style, and moved to Madrid, Spain to pursue four months of intensive flamenco dance training. Since this first trip, Rosanna has returned to Spain regularly to continue to deepen her understanding of this historically and culturally rich dance form, as well to hone her personal interpretation of the movement style.

Rosanna has had the opportunity to attend courses with a combination of traditional and more contemporary flamenco dance teachers in Spain, including Israel Galvan, El Guito, Andres Marin, Belen Maya, La Cintia, Belen Fernandez, Ana Maria Lopez, Matilde Coral, Rocio Coral, La Tati, and Manolo Marin. Rosanna has also studied with a number of Canadian flamenco dance teachers, including Claudia Carolina, Joselina de Leon, Claire Marchand, Veronica Maguire, Kasandra Lea, and Oscar Nieto.

In 2005, Rosanna began producing flamenco shows in Calgary, Alberta along with her sister Graziella Terracciano. To date, they have together presented three flamenco productions, ¡FLAMENCO!, ¡FLAMENCO! 2, and Flamenco Forms, as well as the fundraiser, Flamenco for Breast Cancer. They are currently preparing for their newest production, My Flamenco, which is being presented November 1 to 3, 2007 at Dancer's Studio West in Calgary, and will feature Rosanna's newest flamenco dance works.

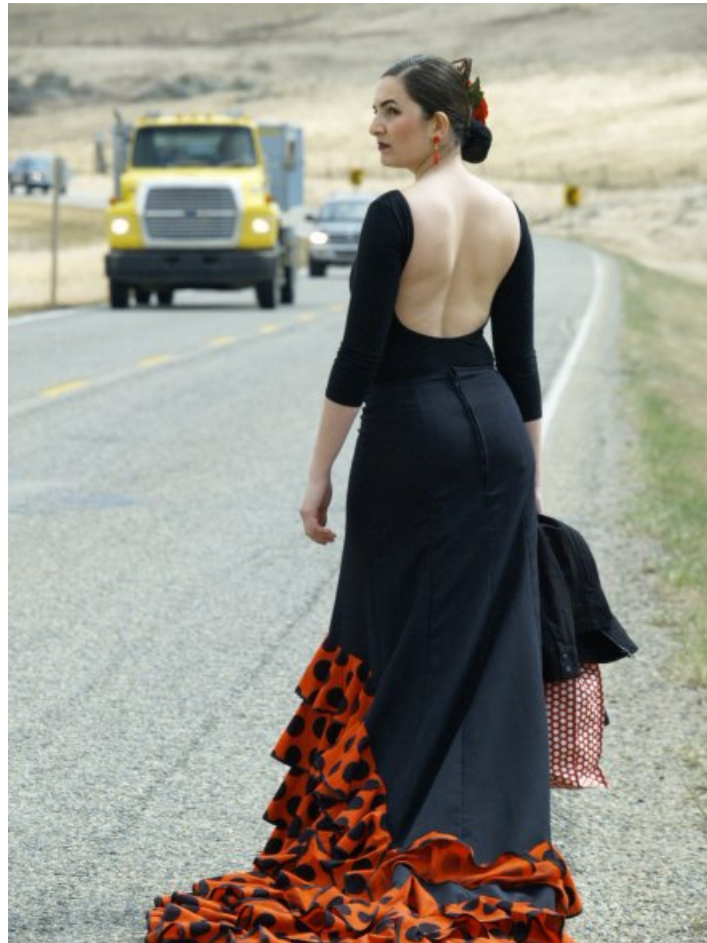

Rosanna has also choreographed and performed at Dancers' Studio West's annual Alberta Dance Explosions, a festival of dance and choreography, as well as Springboard Dance's Fluid Movement Arts Festival (E Merge), a festival of contemporary dance and performance.

Rosanna's honest and highly emotive flamenco dance style is strongly shaped and influenced by the combination of her training and performance experience in both flamenco and contemporary dance.
